BRAND OVERVIEW

The Legendary Dark Silkie Irish Whiskey is inspired by a mythical tale of shape-shifting seals who become beautiful women swimming in the blue-green waters at the front of the Sliabh Liag; a mountain on the Atlantic coast of Donegal, Ireland.

The Legendary Dark Silkie is blended as a tribute to historical rich, smoky whiskeys. Sliabh Liag Distillers have set out to reclaim the nearly lost distilling heritage of Donegal County in Northwest Ireland.

While in process of building their distillery, The Legendary Dark Silkie Irish Whiskey is a blend of the finest double and triple distilled malts, peated malt, and soft grain whiskey, sourced from the finest distilleries in Ireland. These whiskeys are then blended by Master blender, James Daugherty, using Sliabh Liag's unique recipe. Irish peat is used, which is heather-based giving a softer oak and sweeter impression than Scottish peat. The Legendary Dark Silkie is not chill filtered creating a buttery, smoky, nuanced whiskey that will beckon a casual whiskey drinker to step into unfamiliar water.
